PRICE, FIVE CENTS

CITY WILL AID CLEAN-UP WORK LIONS ARE TOLD

Joint Committee Sets May 31 to June 5 as Week for Drive

ALL CIVIC CLUBS REPRESENTED

Zoning System To Be Used for Campaign

Chas. up in Fort Myers has been out for May 21. In the approval of the plan, it was made at a meeting last night in the office of R. A. Henderson, Jr., for delegates members of the various civic and social organizations in the city.

Mr. E. P. Bug, president of the Lions club, presided at the meeting. Representatives of the Lions, Rotary, Business and Professional Women's, and Civitan clubs and of the chamber of commerce, American Legion, and retail estate board were in attendance.

The city was divided into zones and captains appointed to each zone, the leaders to pick their own workers. Every district in the city will undergo a thorough clean-up. All also will be extended to the city officials, it was announced last night.

C. P. Slay, city manager, in a letter to the meeting, said the city was ready to cooperate in any and every way with the clubs and associations in their work.

As a step in this end, it was voted last evening to ask the city for the use of the moving machines which it has in its department, but long grass and weeds may be cut from vacant lots and residential property, just how the expense of the machines' operation will be exacted has not yet been decided, but it is thought the city will stand the bulk of the expense. It was decided to award a prize to the captain whose crew did the most commendable work during the campaign and call the aid of the city agents here, with suitable awards in appreciation of their accomplishment according to its value.

LATEST DRY MOVE IS MEETING WITH MUCH OPPOSITION

Maryland Senator Describes Order as 'Outrage' Against States

GOV. RITCHIE DENOUNCES ACT

New York Officials Believe It Inoperative

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(AP)—Nationally prominent dry, named difficulties are already being set on the path of the latest move to the prohibition law through enactment of local laws.

Senator Ritchie, Democrat of Maryland described as an "outrage" the executive order, authorizing the application of state law to the prohibition law through enactment of local laws.

The act was further characterized by Governor Ritchie of the same state as a "violation of the constitution" and a "disgrace to the state."

Officials in New York are of the opinion that the order is inoperative, but they believe it will be a threat to the law from being held in contempt.
